

CANADIAN SOCIETY FOR THE STUDY OF PRACTICAL ETHICS (CSSPE)

2016 ANNUAL CONFERENCE: ENERGIZING COMMUNITIES

When: May 28-30, 2016

Where: University of Calgary, Calgary, AB

Keynote Speaker: Dr. John Baker, University of Calgary

We invite submissions for papers and presentations on any topic in applied ethics and applied politics. Abstracts on the contributions to practical ethics of the late Christopher Lind, former President of the CSSPE, are especially encouraged.

Abstracts should be no more than 300 words and are due by Jan. 31, 2016.

Please send your abstract to csspe.abstracts@gmail.com

Students are eligible for the Don MacNiven Student Essay Prize.

To enter, submit an abstract and proof of student status by Jan. 31, 2016. You must submit a paper suitable for a 20 minute presentation by March 20, 2016.

T

---

To learn more about the CSSPE, please visit csspe.ca

Contact information: Philip MacEwen, pmacewen@yorku.ca or Kira Tomsons, katomsons@gmail.com, Conference Organizers